Dr. Ali Zohery is a nationally-known expert on travel & tourism, communications, business management and Egyptology. He is founder and owner for 20 years of Zohery Tours (www.zohery.com).

In his native Cairo, Egypt he earned degrees in Archaeology and Egyptology and came to the United States in 1985. In 1998, he was awarded an MBA degree in International Management from Southeastern University in Washington, D.C. and a Ph.D. in Mass Communication in 2004 from Howard University also in Washington, D.C.

With a strong desire to improve the quality of human interaction, communication and behavior, Dr. Zohery has worked tirelessly to promote world ethics, communication and peace. To that end, he founded the World Assembly for Ethics (www.worldassemblyforethics.org) in 2005. He lectures extensively in the Washington, D.C. area and is author of numerous publications, articles and research papers. He founded Zohery University (www.zohery.org) in 2006 for the purpose of "cultivating dedication to serving humankind with a global, multi-cultural and future-oriented perspective of higher learning".

"Achieving peace through tourism."
